

Information for M119 ‘Brief Intro to Calculus’ Fall 2002, Section 3323, C. Judge

Basic Information

- Classroom: Rawles Hall 100.
- Class time: Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, 9:05-9:55 am.

Professor Information

- Name: Chris Judge
- Office: Rawles Hall, room 241
- Phone: 855-2353
- E-mail: cjudge@indiana.edu
- Web page: <http://oncourse.iu.edu>
- Office Hours: Monday and Wednesday 10-11 am, Tuesday 10-12 am, (subject to change)

Course Policies

- Attendance: Please come to every class. You are responsible for everything said in class including changes in the course syllabus and this information sheet.
- Paper Homework: See the syllabus for a list of suggested practice problems. Although these problems will not be collected nor graded, you cannot succeed without doing these problems.
- Web Homework: Homework assignments will be assigned to you and graded by a web-based computer application called Web-Work.
- Quizzes: A quiz will be given every Friday except the Friday before Thanksgiving, the day of Exam 3. The lowest 3 quiz scores will be dropped including missed quizzes. Quizzes cannot be made up.
- Exams:
  - Identification: You must bring your university picture ID and driver’s license with you to each exam (and quiz).

- Missing an exam: An exam can be made-up only if you can prove via documentation that extreme circumstances (such as a high fever) prevented you from attending the exam.
- Grading:
  - Scale: 90/80/70/60
  - Percentages:

Web Homework	20%
Quizzes	20%
Exam 1	12.5%
MidTerm	15%
Exam 3	12.5%
Final Exam	20%
- Incompletes: The grade of 'I' will not even be considered unless the student:
  1. has at least completed a majority of the course work at a passing level;
  2. is unable to complete the remainder of the course work due to an extreme situation such as hospitalization.